ENGLAND TEST PROSPECTS ARE SAID BRIGHT

"MATCH NOT YET OVER."

RAIN EXPECTED TO-DAY

London, To-day.

Despite the huge Australian Test total, the critics writing in this morning's papers were generally optimistic as regards England's chances.

They all agree that England's performance yesterday was highly creditable, thus raising hopes of getting within measurable COMMUNISTS distance of the Australians' total of 701, particularly as the wicket appears to be wearing splen-

Mr. Howard Marshall, the Daily Telegraph critic, says that England has a great batting side and the match is not yet over.

Mothers, Watch Your Growing Daughters! Girls in their early 'teens often outgrow their strength, and at this stage of their development wise mothers will watch their daughters carefully for any signs of anaemia. Impoverished blood is at the root of many health troubles, all of which can be avoided if at the first signs of illness, a tonic is used capable of revitalizing the blood stream, rendering it pure and plentiful. A cause in point is that concerning the daughter of Mrs. M. R. Scouse, of Cooper's Plains, Brisbane, Australia, of whom her mother writes: "I got terribly worried about very anaemic; she grew too fast for her strength and went about languid and tired out. Pains, headaches, and faintness were always troubling her.

She would not eat and had no colour at all. I hardly knew what to do for her until I remembered that some relatives spoke highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for growing girls. I gave my daughter these pills and they wrought a wonderful change in her. After two bottles her. colour come back and I was great-ly relieved to watch her grow stronger every day. Now she is in perfect health."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have long been recognised as one of the finest specifies for combating ansemia, on secount of their ability to create new, rich, red blood, which is so essential co perfect health. Equally good for men and women, Dr. Williams Pink Pills are also a splendid tonic for growing children. Obtainable at all chemists:

South now led the club six from Dummy, East discarded my daughter, aged twelve, who was lanother diamond, and South ruffed with the spade four, completing the Grand Coup. South now re-entered the Dummy with the lead of a diamond, and when East followed suit the Declarer was assured not only of his contract but of an overtrick as well as the next lead was through East's minor tenace in trumps up to the Declarer's hand.

While it is true that the hand netted all thirteen tricks, the success of the play depended too much upon sufficient clubs and diamonds in the East hand to be very dependable. By using the Four-Five Notrump Slam Convention it should have been comparatively; easy for North and South to reach the correct contract, a Grand Slam in clubs.

ACCUSED EXHORTED TO BE BRAVE

The remarkable contents of three letters which were found in a basket, purported to be the property of Ng Loi-yuen, who is facing his trial for the murder of Michael Pine, aged 8, on June 22, were read to the Court for the first time at the Criminal Sessions this morning, when the trial was resumed.

The letters were referred to in the opening of the case yesterday by Mr. J. A. Fraser, Assistant Attorney-General, who said, "one of which may give a little clue as to the motive of the crime."

The letters, translated from John Maynard Keynes.

At the back of the huge sums Congress voted President Roosevelt to spend as "he saw fit" to push forward the public works administration projects looms the figure of Mr. John Maynard-Keynes, noted British economist, who for decades has pleaded for a large public works expenditure fund as a means of pulling nations out of depression doldrums. Mr. Keynes recently talked for several hours at the White House with apparent effect, inasmuch as the chief executive immediately asked for increased PWA appropriations. The influential British scholar accurately foretold the world crisis after the "disastrous" Versailles treaty in 1919, and withdrew from the peace conference in protest against its "injustices"
